

Corporate Services

How we help

Our experienced team offers cost-effective and personalised corporate services to private and public companies, including company formation, company secretarial services and registered office, and preparation and custody of statutory records.

We will keep you updated on regulatory changes and ensure all documentation is fully compliant and up to date.

Who we are

As Hong Kong's longest-established, full-service, independent law firm, we have an enviable reputation based on 170 years of client service. Highly ranked in major independent directories such as Legal 500 Asia Pacific and the IFLR 1000, we have received numerous prestigious industry awards and are commended by our clients for our dedication and high service standards. As one client noted, we have "high-quality and experienced lawyers who provide all-round legal services. They attend to our requests in a timely manner and the quality of service is great."

What we do

Deacons' Corporate Services team provides a personalised corporate services consultation at a standard of quality consistent with the firm's reputation as one of Hong Kong's leading law firms. Clients receive on-the-spot and up-to-the-minute advice on corporate services issues and the benefit of our top quality advice in 18 key service areas, such as Corporate and M&A, Employment & Pensions, Family Law, Data Protection & Privacy, Tax, Litigation & Dispute Resolution, Intellectual Property, Capital Markets, Regulatory, China Trade & Investment, Competition, Banking & Finance, Insurance, Private Clients, Construction, Investment Funds and Real Estate.

Our complete range of corporate services includes:

Company formation in various jurisdictions

- Incorporation of companies in Hong Kong
- Incorporation of companies in offshore jurisdictions
- Maintenance of a stock of shelf companies for sale

Company secretarial services

- Provision of company secretary
- Business registration and renewal
- Provision of registered office
- Custody of statutory books and records
- Ongoing annual filings
- Preparation of shareholders' meeting and board resolution documents
- Provision of authorised representative

Ad hoc matters

- Advising on meeting the requirements pertaining to the keeping of a significant controllers register
- Corporate restructuring

Deregistration, striking off and winding up

- Business operation cessation
- Rendering company dormant

Other services

- Notarial services
- Mainland China attesting services

What our clients say about us

Deacons has received a number of recognitions over the years, such as:

"The professional, responsive, and friendly team provides a practical and insightful approach. They are experienced and able to provide advice quickly."
Bank Consortium Trust Company Limited

"The Deacons team is great. They are responsive, knowledgeable, and always provide timely and substantively top-level services whenever we need. This is why we have maintained a long-term cooperative relationship for more than 30 years."
Hong Kong Yamazaki Baking Company, Limited

"The team has always been proactive and helpful. They go above and beyond with service excellence. We are impressive of their expertise and knowledge who helped us complete special projects so efficiently!"
Janus Henderson

What really matters to us is what our clients think.

And they tell us that they appreciate our ability to understand their businesses and to act as "trusted advisors". We hope that you too will appreciate the "Deacons difference".

Want to know more?

Cynthia Chung
Partner

+852 2825 9297
cynthia.chung@deacons.com

Machiuanna Chu
Partner

+852 2825 9630
machiuanna.chu@deacons.com

Joanne Lau
Corporate Services Senior Manager

+852 2825 5988
joanne.lau@deacons.com

Contact us

Deacons
5th Floor, Alexandra House, 18 Chater Road, Central, Hong Kong