WHY CHOOSE US?

Hong Kong's largest independent law firm:

With over 170 years of experience providing legal services, our clients are assured of the integrity and stability of one of the region's longest-established and most respected law firms. We have developed longstanding relationships across major industry sectors and government institutions in Hong Kong and Mainland China, giving us the comprehensive understanding necessary to provide commercially focused advice relevant to our clients' needs.

Committed and highly experienced team:

Integrity and professionalism are the key attributes that we value most. We aim to act as trusted advisers to our clients. Our dedication to the highest service standards is reflected in our cosmopolitan nature and commitment to innovation.

First-class client service:

Deacons offers a seamless service across Hong Kong and Mainland China covering a spectrum of legal service areas. We are proactive and seek to understand our clients' priorities, help prevent problems and anticipate needs to provide responsive and practical advice on a continuous basis. Our lawyers are able to work in English and Chinese concurrently, allowing us to effectively communicate with our clients on time-critical cases.

Market-leading practices:

Our firm is a leader in many service areas. We are highly ranked in major independent directories including Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 Asia Pacific, have received numerous prestigious industry awards and are commended by our clients for our dedication and professionalism.

Deacons is a firm deeply understanding clients' businesses, caring about clients' needs, and providing profound and comprehensive advice.
