Vincci has an impressive track record on handling complex projects and clients depend upon her. She has played a pivotal role in many of the funds, compliance and regulatory matters she has worked on, and has assisted well-known international and local investment managers, trustees and custodians. She manages complex regulatory approvals processes. Vincci has an in-depth understanding of Hong Kong's Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) and Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority regulations.

In addition, she assists clients in establishing and obtaining the SFC's authorisation of collective investment schemes (CIS) including Hong Kong domiciled unit trusts, Hong Kong open-ended fund companies, UCITS, and prepares documentation and advice. She advises on matters relating to ongoing compliance issues for SFC licensed corporations and representatives, SFC-authorized CIS and marketing of SFC-authorized CIS in Hong Kong. She also advises clients on legal and regulatory matters in relation to approved pooled investment funds (APIFs), MPF schemes and has advised trustees, custodians and other service providers of CIS on their regulatory obligations.
